

Can the REED process be documented in an IEP or CST meeting without using the REED form?

Yes, but . . .

The IEP or CST must clearly document that the team reviewed:

- evaluations and information provided by the parents of the child;
- current classroom-based assessments; and
- observations by teachers and related services providers.